

Further concentration of the media will do irreparable damage to democracy in this country. I urge you to open the Commission to wider hearings so you can hear from the people.